

Author name: R. Johnstone

Date of submission: Friday, 5 February 2016

Submission: Too much too soon.

The recommendation to remove eligibility of self funded retirees/seniors for Gold cards imposes a sudden and immense one off financial impost to those public transport users.

Seniors should retain eligibility for the Gold card while the daily cap is linked to other fare types as recommended.

I am 66 and wholly reliant on superannuation pension.