

Author name: R. Smith

Date of submission: Friday, 5 February 2016

Submission: One should be very, very aware of any increase of fares on the Opal Card for Seniors. Think of the mental health repercussions if people were to be stranded at home because the fare kept them there. Older Australians need to be out and about. Save the hospitals and other agencies by encouraging Seniors to get out and get moving and get talking in their communities.