

Author name: S. Dyer

Date of submission: Tuesday, July 21, 2015

Submission: Train users from Campbelltown should not pay more for train travel. There are no jobs for people in administrative or IT roles in MacArthur region so we travel it costs 60 a week plus just to travel into the city given that we earn less in this area then other areas serviced by buses to the city or light rail we should not pay more or be disadvantage for our need to travel long distances for work.