

Author name: T. Gustard

Date of submission: Wednesday, 16 September 2015

Submission: I would personally like to see the return of periodical based ticketing whereby significant discounts are available to those who pay a lump sum up front, such as the previous monthly, quarterly and annual tickets. After CityRail scrapped these fare, it has been a significant disincentive for me personally to use the train after now my yearly ticket has expired.