

Author name: V. Kang

Date of submission: Thursday, 4 February 2016

Submission: This is an outrageous recommendation for a disproportionately high increase in public transport fares for pensioners and senior people.

This increase will have a negative impact on the daily living in regard to expenditures and social activity of older people.

This will punish the poor. I don't trust this government any more.

I strongly object to the recommendation to increase public transport fare for older people.