

Author name: W. Heppell

Date of submission: Friday, 5 February 2016

Submission: I strongly object to any increase to Seniors Opal Card. The Liberal Party should listen to the people who elected them and not some Fat Cat public servant who has more perks supplied by the taxpayer. It is noted that politicians, both Federal and State never reduce their excessive allowances as an example to the electorate. They find it much easier to increase the burden on the little people than get big developers to pay their fair share of tax.