

---

Sent: Tuesday, 4 November 2008 3:34 PM

Subject: Train Fare Increases

What ever happening to an adjustment in line with CPI, or thereabouts. A big bite as being sought by the NSW Govt and Railcorp will not resolve problems stemming from the lack of investment in rail infrastructure over the past decade. The networks performance and the aged rolling stock does not give the Govt any right to seek an increase in rail fares of such magnitude.

Slow and steady will win the race.