

Dear Tribunal,

I have been using Cityrail for the past 4 years and have undergone some sharp rises in train fares. The proposed rise of fair during January 2009 is completely unjustified. What we are paying right now should be sufficient for all sort of reforms that cityrail is doing. Please do not recommend any fair increase for Cityrail.