

To: IPART Mailbox

Subject: fare increases

We don't need another increase in fares. We are penalised enough because we live a short distance from the city by supplementing the rest of the metropolitan area.

What we do need is transport that turns up on time, is safe, clean and air conditioned or at least be able to open the windows on hot afternoons.

With thanks
Eileen