Hi,

I don't think it is fare to rise train ticket price again. I am a regular train user. Every day I get on train from Hornsby at 7:53am North Shore express train. The train is always packed, most of time, I have to stand until North Sydney to get a seat. Yesterday, I took the early train (7:43 am), but it didn't departure until 7:45am. Each stop, people have difficult to get on the train as it was over packed, The express train over took it, of course, the train was running late, I didn't arrive Wynyard station until 8:44am).

Regards

Yu Lian
