

Friday, 26 September 2008

Dear Sir/Madam

The suggested 18% public transport fare increases are outrageous for services which are late, dirty and overcrowded.

It is important to have affordable public transport fares for reasons of lower transport environmental impact and equity of access.

When patronage is increasing, heavy fare increases are a good way to put of the new passengers.

Regards

ANDREW MULLER