

30 September 2008

Sydney Bus Fare Review

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to put forward my opposition to the proposed Sydney Bus fare increases. Public transport in Sydney is poorly organized and already overpriced for the quality of service provided. Buses are overcrowded and rarely run to schedule. I am often left waiting during my morning commute as bus after bus passes my stop already full. An increase in bus fares would certainly make me rethink my patronage of Sydney Buses. It is disheartening to hear that in Sydney, which already suffers from shocking traffic congestion, moves are being considered which would discourage rather than encourage people to use public transport.

Regards,
S. Tetu