

To those who care,

I am extremely disappointed at the state government's proposal to increase bus fares. I would like to know your reasons and what have you got to justify such a move. If authorities intend to advocate the use of public transport, is this how you in turn penalise those who choose to use the system. I do hope greater consideration have been placed on the welfare of the public.

Regards
Angi

Sydney, NSW
