

To the IPART

As a water user on the Brogo River we depend on the water as much as everybody but full cost recovery is not the way to go. We need the water and you need to run the dam. But not at a cost that is going to jeopardy's dairy families and the communities and business that rely on theirs farms for work.

Thank you
Keith Pearce